User Feedback

I would like to thank all responsible for this body of indispensible online content; if only i had the space to download everything! I am amazed that such a project existed & and i'm thrilled to read through everyhing listed here. Coming from a lower class family & not being able to fund the type of education i'd like to, this really helps satisfy my need for greater knowledge. I only hope to make bank off this market correction so that i may be able to attend your prestigious instution some day. - Self Learner, USA

Due to your substancial demostration of lab chemistry i had been motivoated to say you are wonderful and interesting therefore; would like to recommemd your school to whom ever would indicate an interest in a realistic laboratory chemistry knowlegde and for me would like to be seeing more of you in the youtube vedio espectially in the area of spectroscopic or spectrophotometric techniques which involes Atomic absorption, emission, UV-v and mass spectrometry as well NMR.

presently i am studying MSc Analytical chemistry in the university of teesside middlesbrough.

Thanks for the beautiful performance shown in the youtube

I just wanted to thank MIT for providing extremely useful information for both high school and college students alike. The fact that it's free is amazing and the reputation from MIT assures me I am receving reliable information. I particuarly like how you organize the information similar to the guidelines Collegeboard provides. Please, if this email has any purpose, continue providing this free and fantasice "open courseware" to students. Thank you MIT! Student - High School, USA
